

Emergency Evacuation Plan in the Works for Kanawha-Putnam Area
WOWK, WVNS & WBOY TV
August 25, 2009

The study is being conducted by J.H. Consulting, of Buckhannon.

KANAWHA CO. -- The Kanawha-Putnam Emergency Planning Committee is working on an evacuation plan for the area.

J. H. Consulting, of Buckhannon, has been chosen to do an evacuation study for emergency services offices, and is expected to be completed within a year.

The emergency evacuation study is being funded by a grant from the United States' Department of Homeland Security.